*Elders elected to preside in absence of a bishop.

In 1844 the great division occurred, and in 1845 the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was organized. Continuous activity in Holston Conference Methdoist Episcopal Church, was abandoned until the close of the Civil War. In 1865 the Holston Conference was re-organized at Athens, Tennessee, under the Presidency of Bishop David W. Clark.

MEMOIRS

ALFRED G. CADLE

The Rev. Alfred G. Cadle was admitted on trial in the Holston Conference in 1886, and into full membership in 1888. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Fitzgerald in 1888, and elder by Bishop Merrill in 1893.

The following shows his ministerial record:

Big Valley, 1886; Speedwell, 1887; Sneedville, 1888-89; Rogersville, 1890; Sy., 1891-92; Parrottsville, 1893; Jonesboro, 1894; Bloomingdale, 1895; Ducktown, 1896; Sy., 1897; Tazewell, 1898-99; Sy., 1900; Newport Circuit, 1901; Fair Garden, 1902; Well Spring, 1903-4; Sunbright, 1905; Rose Hill, 1906-7; Retired, 1908.

Brother Cadle was well informed in the doctrines of the Bible and was a preacher of more than ordinary ability. He had imagination, insight, and sympathy. The test of success with him was not popularity but usefulness. He consecrated his powers to Christian uses and results. Nothing was more marked in his preaching than the joyful note of assured faith in the continued presence of Christ with His Church, and the steady advance of His kingdom among men. He believed that God is working in the great wide human world outside the Church, and that He is present in all the mighty currents of thought and action.

At life's end it gave him joy to remember that he had not been afraid to trust Christ, but had kept a firm faith which enabled him to see God's hand through his lifetime, and through storm and stress to perceive the divine Lord walking amid the tumult of the time and treading its rough waves level with his feet.

“Now the laborer's task is o'er;
Now the battle-day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

There the tears of earth are dried;
There its hidden things are clear;
There the work of life is tried
By a juster Judge than here.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

‘Earth to earth, and dust to dust;’
Calmly now the words we say;
Left behind we wait in trust
For the resurrection day.
Father in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.”

J. H. STEVENSON

The Rev. J. H. Stevenson, was a member of Holston Conference for a brief period, during which time he held a professorship in Vanderbilt University. From a strong Christian ancestry he inherited fine qualities of intellect and will. Being by nature a close reasoner he was able to give a reason for the faith that was in him. The testimony of his life was clear, confident, comforting. He won and held the esteem and good will of his fellow-men. He was ever faithful to his Master and the Church he loved. His unwavering trust gave him the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. His life was beautiful in its simplicity and earnest devotion to duty. The uprightness, sincerity, and manliness of this minister were steady as the stars. He loved the Bible, the Church, God, and his fellow-man. Modest and humble, his deeds always exceeded his profession. Clear-sighted, tender-hearted, open-minded, he was wise in counsel, eminent in character, a true servant of God.

We are without data concerning his ministerial records but the facts are recorded in the book of remembrance where he looks upon the King in His beauty, in the land where the sun never sets.

"It must be sweet, O thou my dead! to lie
With hands that folded are from every task;
Sealed with the seal of the Great Mystery
The lips that nothing answer, nothing ask;
The life-long struggle ended; ended quite
The weariness of patience and of pain,
And the eyes closed to open not again
On desolate dawn or dreariness of night.
It must be sweet to slumber and forget,
To have the poor, tired heart go still at last.
Done with all yearning, done with all regret;
Doubt, fear, hope, sorrow, all forever past;
Past all the hours, or slow of wing or fleet.
It must be sweet! It must be very sweet!"

William Anderson Martin was born at Mt. Zion, Carroll County, Georgia, May 16, 1869, died at Rockwood, Tennessee, at the home of his son, Rev. W. C. Martin, June 22, 1920. He was married August 15, 1888, to Miss Hattie Holt, of Ellijay, Georgia. To this union were born four children. Two died in infancy. The two living are Mrs. Maude Creel of Carrollton, Georgia, and Rev. W. C. Martin, pastor of Rockwood Methodist Episcopal Church, Holston Conference. He was bereaved of his first wife in the year 1893. The same year he was married to Miss Addie Wilson of Mineral Bluff, Georgia. To this marriage was born one son, James W. Martin. Surviving him are the widow, two sons, W. C. and James W. Martin, and one daughter, Mrs. Maude Creel of Carrollton, Georgia; also his father and mother, Dr. and Mrs.

J. A. Martin of Mt. Zion, Georgia, together with three brothers and five sisters, among whom is Mrs. L. D. Hamil, wife of L. D. Hamil, pastor Ridgedale Methodist Episcopal Church, Holston Conference.

He professed faith in Christ at the age of eight; was licensed to preach at the age of sixteen. He joined the Georgia Conference in 1893 on probation, was admitted into full connection in 1896; was ordained deacon by Bishop Foster in 1896 and elder by Bishop Merrill in 1899. He gave service at various points in the Georgia Conference until the year 1912. In that year he was transferred to the Holston Conference where he served Tracy City, Etowah, Alton Park, Jellico, and Clinton. His last public service was the giving of an Easter message last Easter. While he died comparatively a young man he had given many years of service. He began preaching young. To preach with him was an absorbing desire. In his last illness in moments of consciousness he expressed his desire to get well that he might preach again. He belonged to a generation of preachers. He was the third in a line of preachers and leaves a worthy successor in Rev. W. C. Martin of Rockwood, a most promising young man in the ministry. One of his sisters serves as a helper in the home of the Rev. L. D. Hamil in our Holston Conference. He was a good gospel preacher. He was of a diffident, retiring nature but forgot it all when he was in the pulpit. He was a devotional preacher. He was of a highly nervous temperament and easily stirred when opposed, but his spirit of forgiveness was just as striking. He found close friendship among the preachers and among the laity. His devotion to the people whom he served was so strong that it was never easy for him to leave a people whom he served for any length of time. He will not answer the roll call at Conference again on earth, but will respond to the roll call beyond the bar. He has passed from the land of the dying to the land of the living a servant of God. "Well done. Thy glorious warfare is past. the battle fought, the race is won, and thou art crowned at last."

MRS. ANNIE SPARGO BRUNER

Mrs. Annie Spargo Bruner, wife of Rev. Marion C. Bruner, was born at Ducktown, Tennessee, October 19, 1860. She was married to Rev. Marion C. Bruner, December 24, 1882. On July 12, 1920, she slept and was no more on earth, for God took her. Mrs. Bruner was reared in the home of staunch Methodist people. Her father and mother, James and Mary Spargo, were pillars of the church in their day and their home was ever open to the minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Two brothers from this good home are still living. They are J. A. Spargo of Leed City, S. D., and Dr. S. J. Spargo, of Ducktown, Tenn.

Eight children were born to Rev. and Mrs. Bruner, one son and seven daughters. A daughter died in infancy and two in recent years. The son and four daughters survive her. Mrs. Bruner professed faith in Christ when she was twelve years old. She united with the Methodist Episcopal church and was a loyal and faithful member during the remainder of her life. Her religious experience was strong from girlhood. She was active in the work in her youth and was serving as organist at the time of her marriage. She taught in the Sunday School and was interested in every phase of the work of the kingdom and gave her time and energy unsparingly inasmuch as home duties would permit her.

As a minister's wife she believed implicitly in her husband and loyally sustained him in his labors. Brother Bruner served more than twenty charges scattered from Elizabethton to Chattanooga and from Tellico Plains to Wartburg. She moved of every charge save two through all those years. These churches were not all stations but ranged from the hardest country circuit with a meagre support to the city station. Her service meant lonely hours with her family of small children. It meant hardship and privation but she accepted the life cheerfully as one called of God for this service. She was quiet, modest, and unassuming in her manner, giving herself unsparingly to the welfare of her family and the stranger who sojourned within the home. Perhaps she gave most lavishly in her recent years her affection for little Gene, the grandson who only knew a mother's love for one brief month. She mothered him to the day of her death.

Her going was sudden and unexpected to her friends. We thought of her as in usual health the message came that her departure was at hand. We know that the Great Shepherd who went to prepare a fold for His flock was ready for her coming.

MRS. EMMA ACUFF GASS.

Mrs. Emma Acuff Gass was born at Dumplin, Jefferson County, Tenn., April 21, 1883. She died at her home in the parsonage at Pigeon Forge, Tennessee, June 4, 1920.

She professed faith in Christ and united with the French Broad Valley Baptist Church when she was thirteen years of age, of which church she was a member at the time of her death.

She was married to Marvin B. Gass, April 21, 1908. To this union seven children were born. She is survived by her husband and six little girls, one son having died in infancy. The surviving children are Ruth, Blanche, Gladys, Lula, Grace, and Maud. Her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. J. W. Acuff, also survive her, and two sisters and four brothers with a host of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Gass was a noble Christian woman, a kind, loving, and faithful companion and mother. She served the Church in the capacity of a minister's wife for twelve years, sharing with her husband the hardships peculiar to the Methodist itinerancy. God in his wisdom has seen fit to call her from toils of earth to the rewards of heaven. She is called to the higher service of the Church Triumphant to be with Jesus and the angels and the little babe which had gone before.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. K. Harris, district superintendent, of the Knoxville district, assisted by Rev. E. A. Bishop, J. F. Rowe, and J. F. Lynch. Her body was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Shiloh Methodist Episcopal Church, four miles from Sevierville. A large number of sympathizing friends were in attendance at the funeral and showed their affection for the departed one by covering the grave with a mound of beautiful flowers.

I would say to the bereaved ones, "Weep not as those who have no hope." God alone can speak the word that will console and soothe the broken heart. Let us look expectantly forward to the meeting in the City where the many mansions are.

MRS. MATTIE HOWARD REED

Mrs. Mattie Howard Reed second daughter of A. W. and M. M. Howard, and widow of the late Rev. P. H. Reed of the Holston Conference, died Thursday, February 19, 1920, and the funeral service was held at her home in Greeneville, Tennessee, Saturday afternoon, conducted by the writer. Mrs. Reed. had been in declining health for a number of years and was one of the most patient of sufferers. She lived alone until within a few weeks of her death, did her work, and was especially interested in her garden during the season. Although her health was poor, and her breathing difficult, she took a pride in showing her friends the work she did. With her papers was found the following: "I thank each and every one of my own, and of strangers, for every act of kindness shown me; and for every kind word given me since my husband left me to finish life's journey alone; alone with God, precious and righteous Father. He made a road for my broken works, and a rainbow of my tears.

'He wipes my brow as I droop and faint,
He blessed my hand to toil,
Faithful is He as He washes my feet,
From traces of earthly soil.'

The conflict will soon be over, and I will be at the Beautiful Gate waiting and watching for friends and loved one." The clause "alone! alone with God" seems expressive of the life of this good woman, but being alone with God gave her a deeply spiritual nature. My visits in her home during my pastorate in Greeneville were a benediction to me. She loved the Bible and always had me to read it to her and to pray with her. Mrs. Reed was a loyal Methodist. She joined the church at Greeneville, Tennessee, in 1874, the late Dr. J. S. Petty being pastor at that time, and to this church she was a faithful member. She trusted God for everything, and her confidence in Him was as the confidence of a child in its earthly father. Mrs. Reed became the wife of Rev. Reed in 1891 and for thirteen years was his faithful and devoted companion, then God took him and as she so often expressed it, left her "alone with God." Mrs. Reed leaves two brothers, both of Greeneville, Tennessee, and one sister of Venice, Illinois, also a number of relatives and friends to mourn her death. All that is earthly sleeps now beside her husband in the cemetery at Greeneville, Tennessee, but the spirit has returned to the God who gave it. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." May this be the comforting thought to those who remain and her comforter through life be yours in this hour of bereavement.

REPORTS

BRISTOL DISTRICT

M. H. Rambo, Superintendent

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

Three years' of service on the Bristol District has convinced me that there is not a harder task in the Holston Conference. The conviction grows that this field, to be adequately cared for, should be served by two men instead of one. The task increases from year to year as the District Develops. This has been even a more strenuous year of labor for me than was last year, notwithstanding last years' Centennary program. But the hardships of labor in the interest of the Kingdom hold no terrors for me so long as I can see that progress is being made, and while loyal men of God stand by me as most of the Pastors of this District have done.

We desire to call attention to the outstanding features of the year's work.

The call to emphasize evangelism found a ready response from a majority of the Pastors. Reports indicate that there have been about 1000 conversions and eight hundred accessions. Not having heard from all the Charges as to these items, we give a conservative estimate, and trust that more accurate reports to the Conference will show a still larger tabulation. The following Charges will report fifty or more accessions: Bristol, Christiansburg, Fries, Glenford, Hilton, LaFayette, Konnarock, Radford,; and several others will range from twenty to fifty. Three Charges will have to their credit, one each, and one, nothing.

Nearly all Charges have shown more or less liberality by increasing the Pastor's salary over that of the previous year. We have not yet reached the standard of one thousand dollars upon an average.

One Charge was not supplied with a Pastor until the year was more than half gone. This is the Wise Circuit. The Pastor of Wise, Brother Elzey, has done considerable extra work in trying to render service to the circuit in addition to that of his own charge.

The Pastor of Pennington Gap, Rev. T. O. Brumley, gave up the work in mid year, giving as his reason an aggravated throat trouble. In casting about for some one to take this important appointment we were fortunate in securing the services of Rev. H. G. Osborne, College Pastor at Lincoln Memorial University, and with a loss of time of only one month to the Charge.

Pastor V. E. Watson, of Salem Charge, apparently served acceptably until about July 1st, when reports of evil conduct necessitated his removal. Brother E. M. Rupe was induced to care for the work until Annual Conference, and considering the difficulties he encountered, has done an excellent work.

Materially the District has had a remarkable advance. This has been largely due to our Centenary program. Our costliest project now under way is a new Church at Nicklesville, where we have a new Methodist class, as well as a new Church building under way. The design of this building is adapted to Community Center work, and has the approval of the Board of Architecture of Philadelphia. The structure is just about half completed. It is here that our next District Conference is to be held, and we feel confident that we can have the Church dedicated by that time. This project has been under the efficient management of our most noted Church builder, Rev. T. J. Crumley. The estimated cost of this building is twelve thousand dollars. Another project of almost equal magnitude is Robinette Memorial Church at Fairview, where one man Mr. Ira Robinette, and he past eighty years of age, is contributing nearly four thousand dollars to provide an adequate building to meet the community's needs. This project is also on brother Crumley's Charge, and under his supervision. The work of building these two Churches has been heavy, and the draught upon brother Crumley's strength we fear has been too much. We are sorry to have to report that he has had a nervous breakdown, and his physician has ordered a prolonged rest.

Our Dedication of the Goodwin Memorial Church at Singer, on the LaFayette Charge was a day long to be remembered by that community. Dr. H. E. Murkett, Pastor of First Church, Chattanooga, preached the Dedicatory sermon, to the delight and edification of a large congregation. After such an inspiring message, it was a comparatively easy task to raise the debt of one thousand dollars. The Church building is a neat frame chapel and worth four to five thousand dollars, although erected at considerably less cost than this.

The Centenary has aided in the purchase of a new Parsonage at Bristol, worth five thousand dollars, one at Christiansburg, worth three thousand, one at Hilton which cost two thousand, and for which an offer of four thousand has been tendered; and one at Wise to cost four thousand, of which amount the Centenary will furnish fifteen hundred dollars. There have been numerous other outlays at several places in the District, amounting to several hundreds of dollars. The parsonage at Salem was sold during the year for fourteen hundred dollars, with a view to re-investing in a better building. The District Parsonage has been improved to the amount of four thousand dollars or more, and at the same time nearly six hundred dollars of the indebtedness has been provided.

Our annual Minutes should show that we have property on the Bristol District to the amount of $320,000, of which $45,000 is for parsonages. These figures have been supplied after careful investigation by the Trustees of the Church and Parsonage property, and the estimates are for the present valuation, and are not based upon past reports. The property value for practically the same territory is reported in the Minutes of the Virginia Conference for 1900 as being $62,225. Pastoral support at that time was about five thousand dollars; now it is sixteen thousand. Membership then was 5142, there are now approximately 8000. These comparisons will show whether Methodism has been growing in our Virginia territory.

During the early part of the year three Centenary Group meetings were held by Dr. Goddard, all of which were helpful. Centenary collections will be far ahead of any previous year although many Pastors appear not to have been able to collect the full amount of the subscriptions for the year. The District Conference was held at Radford from July 14th to 18th, and it was commonly agreed that it was one of the best the District has ever had. Dr. James L. Robb, of the Athens School, and Dr. H. E. Murkett, of First Church, Chattanooga, and Messrs. S. H. Thompson and W. I. Marshall all brought friendly and helpful messages, and added greatly to the value of our Conference. This annual mid-year gathering of the Pastors and leading laymen has proven to be an event of great helpfulness.

We have six Women's Home Missionary Societies, and six Epworth Leagues on the District. They are in the main doing good work.

The Sunday schools of this territory have been moving along normally. There are 102 Schools with an enrollment of eight thousand. We are glad to note that the Pastors are becoming more careful and accurate in making their reports. We fear that some have used the pruning knife a little too freely, while others are somewhat too lax in this matter. If statistics are to mean anything they should be accurate.

In closing this report I desire to express my appreciation to the Pastors of the District for their uniform kindness and warm-heartedness, and for the spirit of co-operation which they have manifested toward me. For all the victories we have together won, we give the praise to our Heavenly Father.

CHATTANOOGA DISTRICT

J. A. Mitchell, Superintendent

Great prosperity in all spiritual and material work has resulted from the labors of the pastors and people of the Chattanooga district this year.

Revivals have been held in nearly every Charge, and a large number of conversions and accessions are reported from the Charges, and the pastors reports will show at least 15 per cent increase in Membership—the gospel of Jesus Christ has not lost its power to save. The Churches on the Chattanooga District maintain with faithfulness and zeal the services of God's House. Class meetings are held in many of our Churches and the old time love-feast is being revived.

Our Sunday Schools are doing a good work, and many are led to accept Christ through the study of God's Word in the Sunday School. Our Sunday Schools generally use our Methodist literature.

The Epworth Leagues and Junior Leagues have not been lacking in the work of leading the people to Christ. Many have been brought to God through these organizations, and they have also been diligent in training there members for efficiency and usefulness in Christian service. We have on the Chattanooga District, fifteen Senior Leagues and nine Junior Leagues.

Our Church Literature is placed in nearly all our Methodist homes, nearly all of the Official Members of the District are taking our own Advocate-Journal.

Our Benevolences, including our Centennary Quota, will be paid almost in full.

The following Charges made an increase in their pastors salary this year: Athens, North Athens, Athens Circuit, Alton Park, Avondale, First Church, Highland Park, Ridgedale, St. James, Cleveland, Cleveland Circuit, Coalmont, Englewood, and Tellico Plains, Etowah, Jasper and Whitwell, and Soddy, aggregating $4010.00 increase in District Superintendent's salary, $200.00, and the salaries have all been paid in full.

Large improvements have been made on Churches and Parsonages during the year. Our St. Marks church has been finished and a fine Pipe Organ installed at a cost of $20,000. The pastor and people labored faithfully together to bring about this great result.

The First Church has purchased a fine parsonage on Vine Street at a cost of $15,000. This splendid home for the pastor is a fine improvement for our First Church property.

The St. James Church and Parsonage has been greatly improved, which cost $2500 and great energy was displayed by the pastor and people in this improvement.

Our Church at Etowah has put in an ideal heating plant, and made other improvements at a considerable cost, reflecting great credit on pastor and people.

The church and parsonage at Alton Park has also been improved this year. A great victory to the faith, work, and liberality of the people and pastor.

Also improvements have been made at Ridgedale and at Highland Park. And minor improvements have been made on churches on the Athens Circuit, Chatata Circuit, and the Tracy City Circuit. Nearly every Charge has made some improvement on church or parsonage this year, aggregating about $45,000.

Our educational interests of the Chattanooga District has never seen a better day, than this day. The Chattanooga University has had the best year of its history, and it opens with the finest prospect for another year that it has ever had.

The School at Athens under the leadership of Dean Robb is making great progress, its dormitories are full of young men and women, and many are cared for in other buildings, and in private homes, fitting themselves for life's work, and many of these young people will take up religious work in the Methodist Church.

For six years the pastors and people, with myself, have toiled and striven together in the faith of the gospel. What joys we have had together! It is blessed to work for God and Man.

For six years the Chattanooga District has steadily moved up on every line, "what God hath wrought." We praise him for all that is past. The past was full of blessing, salvation, victory, Our Conference territory, our State, our Nation, our World, shall be saved by Jesus Christ through the Ministry of His Church.

The Holston Conference must be, and will be in the front of the battle; and the Chattanooga District must always be in line, and the greater victories of soul-saving in the future beyond all the victories of the past will prove that Jesus Christ reigns and conquers through his Church in ever-increasing measure and power.

A Personal Word

For six years I have traveled through the Chattanooga district. I have kept every appointment, I have never disappointed the people, I have held every Quarterly Conference in person, with but one exception, I have traveled through the cold and through the heat, through the dust and through the mud, through the rain and through the snow. God has given me almost perfect health and strength to do this work, for which I give him thanks.

Pastors and Laymen of the Chattanooga District: You are a royal Brotherhood, I have loved our Lord Jesus Christ, and I have loved you, and it has been a pleasure to live and labor with you all. God be with you! God will be with you always.

HARRIMAN DISTRICT

J. W. Boling, Superintendent

The geographical immensity of the Harriman District has baffled both limb and pen of the fleetest and wisest District Superintendents. She still occupies her allotted space with problems commensurate to her size. The remains of the District Superintendent do not lie before you while bearing testimony to this fact.

Notwithstanding prohibitive prices a pronounced activity has been carried on improving church and parsonage property. Many such improvements have met imminent need. At Solway on the Byington Charge, a beautiful church building has been erected at a cost of $2000. At Sunbright, plans are well on the way toward the construction of a church building that will be a credit to the District. This is one of the strategic points among so many in this mountain section around which new and large developments are to arise. This church which will cost probably $5000 will be a determining exponent for the future development of our Methodism in this growing section. After plans had been formulated in the Quarterly Conference, Luther Clear secured a deed to a church building at Woolridge, Tennessee, on the Newcomb and Jacksboro Charge. Thus we obtained a building worth at least $4000. At Fletcher's Ferry, on Powells River, and immediately between Well Springs and Big Valley Charges, I learned that Wm. Fletcher was planning to build a church as a memorial to the Fletcher family. With the feeling that a man of such spirit deserved the encouragement of the District Superintendent, he was sought and found. The hospitality enjoyed in his beautiful home was a delightful anticipation of some future day when a Methodist minister should occupy this splendid home as a parsonage, serve as pastor of Fletcher Memorial Church, and preside over the affairs of Fletcher Domain. Because it is the purpose of this noble man to deed not only the church, but his farm and home to the Methodist Episcopal Church. This farm comprises 400 acres of fertile land forested with a vast wealth of virgin timber, and is worth at least fifty thousand dollars.

The value of Christian Education as an effective exponent in Kingdom extension has held sustained recognition since the advent of Methodism in the nursery of Oxford University. During periods of pronounced transition, this value is always intensified. With all the vital assests of the Civilization of tomorrow seething on the annealing board of reconstruction processes, the Christian Church has the only voice adequate to the task of conveying the message of the class room through the laboratory of classification in order that the standards of life for the new age may not revert to Paganism. Recognition has been given to this fact throughtout the year on this District. Through the co-operation of the Centenary authorities and the loyal laymen of Sequatchie Valley, a Centenary School of Secondary Grade has been established at Melvine, Tennessee. Around this school and in the immediate section, a number of grammar schools are already in process of development. This great project in a resourceful section where the powers and purposes of life are naturally intense will be a recruiting station for the tempered qualities of character well-trained for the larger tasks of the new day. In this project alone $13,000 has been added to the Centenary subscriptions of the District this year. The total subscriptions obtained this year will add to our credits an amount equal to about one third of the total subscriptions made to the Centenary movement in the main drive last year.

The pastors and laymen have done more than see visions and dream dreams. Conscious of the fact that neither visions nor dreams avail anything unless they are adorned with good works they have invested the best energies of life in transposing dreams into realities. As a result the laymen have had not a better Gospel but a more acceptable presentation of the same Gospel. A good day's work always commands a good day's pay. Five thousand dollars increase in pastoral support on the District this year bears sufficient testimony to increased lay appreciation. The surest route to the layman's granary is by way of the furrow that tills the soil of his daily spiritual need. The pastors have been faithful to every interest of our Zion, and God has honored their faithful toil with a fruitful harvest. Rev. W. A. Martin, one of our ablest and most consecrated preachers answered the summons and went to the enjoyment of his full reward in Heaven. Brother A. C. Cadle, an honored and faithful member of our Conference for a number of years, died at Middlesboro, Kentucky, in the early part of this year.

Immediately after Conference last year, a tour was planned involving a series of Sub-District Retreats. These retreats were well attended by ministers and laymen. Classes in practical methods of evangelism were conducted to the profit and inspiration of all in attendance. This inspiration for a militant program of revival activity was thus created and ran with undiminished fervor throughout the year. There has been no quarter during the year that has failed to register an outstanding revival. As a result more than twelve hundred conversions will be reported for this year. The accessions to church membership will be decidedly above the normal ratio that has usually pre-ailed. The net increase in membership will be much less than the actual gain would tabulate because of inaccuracies in former reports on membership.

The climatic word of this report is to be that which has constituted the absorbing theme of emphasis on the District this year. It is to be observed that the domestic shepherd goes not to the jungle pack but to the lambs of the flock in order to replenish the stock of the fold. Have we not been habitually engaged in thrumming the chords of "Rescue the Perishing" while our neglect of the nursery from whence the perishing come has fed the growing ranks of th perishing far in excess of our proudly flourished columns registering the muster roll of the redeemed? Who authorized us to fervently proceed on the presumption that God can produce a greater saint from a reformed sot than He can from the unpolluted resources of childhood? Therefore the viscious habit of neglecting the children has been branded as a wicked heresy, repugnant certainly to God who builds the race not out of tamed animals but by beginning with little children. Repugnant alike to Jesus, who came as a babe to redeem the world, who took children into his arms, blessing them, and who set apart a little child to be the standard of measure in the Kingdom of Heaven. Much has been said and much more is yet to be said with deep solicitude over the rapidity with which our ministerial ranks are growing consantly thinner. Certain well-defined remedies are running the rounds of the Church press. The most absurd is a proffered hybrid constituted by the unification of two distinct bodies constitutionally and historically separated by principles fundamentally conducive to militant antagonisms. All for the sake of economy—economy in men and money. What for? Why, in order that there may be more money to be invested in and more sons consecrated to the industry of speculation in quarters of salted pork. Hail the agitation for a re-instituted School of Theology in the South. Especially if we can save it from the vexations of ambitious rivalries, having no merit except that born of the greed of locality. But a Theological curriculum and faculty will be impotent in an atmosphere created by Christian parents who no longer pray that God may honor parenthood by calling a son into the ministry. We verily believe in a Divine call to the ministry. But He is the same God to whose Priesthood Samuel was called—called of God but brought by his mother. These and many other sufficient reasons have been the ground of appeal for the better Sunday School, the greater activity in conserving the young life of the church, the highest degree of parental consecration, in order that God may have the first chance at the powers of childhood before they are vitiated by needless dissipation. So, while the sinner has been called upon to repent with the unqualified assurance that the blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin, parents, and children have alike been warned that to sin is to suffer, to sin and to suffer is to squander the powers which even the sufficiency of grace cannot restore. The frantic regret of St. Paul in desperate, though vain, pursuit of wasted powers of manhood which should have made him as much greater than his greatest self as that was greater than his greatest peer, has been flourished as the reason of irresistible logic, that even God is dependent upon first hand use of human powers in order to bring them to the sublimest realization of their divinely engendered possibilities.

When we contemplate the vastness of the task, the corresponding inadequacy of what we had to bring to the solution of the task, and then of what has been accomplished, we come to a new appreciation of the "power that worketh in us to do His good pleasure" and that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we may ask or think." Therefore we know that "Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant," is able to "Make us perfect in every good work to do his will, working in us that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen."

JOHNSON CITY DISTRICT

Rev. R. L. Stapleton, Superintendent

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

At the beginning of the past conference year on the Johnson City District there were twenty members of the Conference and eight supplies appointed to the charges.

Immediately after the adjournment of the Conference Session, J. E. Milburn who had been appointed to Greeneville Charge, resigned the work in order to attend school. He was released from the charge. The Greeneville church was then without the services of a regular pastor until last May, when by the consent of the resident Bishop, I appointed C. E. Powell, formerly of the Area Centenary Staff, to finish out the year. H. H. Schultz was appointed to Newport Circuit, W. R. Byerly took the place of Sanders Williams, on Thorn Hill Charge, and Dewey Jenkins took charge of Watauga circuit in place of T. F. M. Fraker. With these changes, and the remainder of the appointments as indicated in the Conference Journal, we have finished up the work of the year.

The pastors have all gone about their work with cheerfulness, zeal, and courage, and the accomplishments have been correspondingly encouraging and hopeful. Revivals and soul winning campaigns have been held in nearly all the churches of the district, and the tabulated results are much in keeping with the desires and prayers of the laymen and pastors of this district. There will be reported by the pastors about 2000 professions, about 1000 additions and about 500 net gain in membership.

I do not desire to look around to find excuse for anything we ought to have done, which we have not done, but there have been distractions among the people in our territory, as in other parts of the country, which have interfered with the advance in aggressiveness of the churches in various ways. The restlessness of the masses of labor on public works has or did take hold on the rural population also, and with the unprecedented rise of land values in some of our rural communities there has been much changing, buying, selling, and removals of many of our leaders among the layment in certain sections of the territory. The high cost of living has continued to agitate us also, together with the fact that this is a great political year all over the country, and as every East Tennessee citizen is a politician and just will talk politics on all occasions, you can well see that the pastors who have been able to stem all this tide of divisive interest and to win souls and money for the Kingdom, might be considered as doing a great work indeed.

In harmony with the purpose and development of the Centenary program, we are making a special study and effort in the regrouping of some of the charges in order to secure more efficient service on the part of pastors and improve the possibilities of the charges concerned. The pastors can never accomplish what is expected of them, and the churches can never go forward to meet the responsibilities that are on them in their community interests, while the number of appointments are relatively so large as they are at this time, to each charge.

There are 134 preaching places attached to 28 charges; 6 of these are stations, so this leaves for the circuits an average of about 6 preaching points to the charge, with many other small points desiring to be placed on our list again.

There will probably not be quite as good a showing on the benevolent and Centenary Collections this year as last year. I found that the impulse of the financial drive last year influenced the collections also, and as we did not have the initial influence to support the collections this year, there is a falling off in some reports in this direction. There was bound to be some re-action in such an intense drive for the subscriptions which were taken last year, and the wonder is that we will hold our own in this respect as well as the reports will indicate.

There are a number of important building and improvement enterprises which are going forward as a result of Centenary financial support to the district. The Pittman Community Center is being developed in the bounds of Newport Circuit, in Sevier County, three appointments of which have been cut off from the original Newport Circuit and added to the Community Center Circuit in order to develop the section immediately surrounding that Smokey Mountain territory.

Sulphur Springs Camp Ground Class is preparing to erect a fine new church there next year. The Kingsport church building enterprise is being cared for, under very difficult circumstances, and the financial situation we hope will be so clarified that the building can be erected complete next Spring. Morristown Circuit Parsonage, Chuckey Circuit Parsonage, and the District Parsonage, have all received help this year from the Centenary funds in paying off debts on them.

The Russellville Class of Morristown Circuit is planning to build a new church on the pike next year, with the help of Centenary funds. Two classes on Watauga Circuit have united their forces and have erected and almost paid for, a new brick veneer church on the pike near the old Turkeytown Camp Ground in Carter County. The new church will be known as Slagles Chapel and is the result of the union of the old Slagles and Hart Classes. Some Centenary assistance will be sufficient to pay the new church out of debt when dedicated. Baileyton charge is planning a fine new $4,000 Parsonage under the leadership of Pastor Leonard.

I received a letter from Captain J. J. Marshall saying he had closed a deal for a fine parsonage property at Clear Springs Church for the Limestone Circuit. They have purchased the house and seven acres of land for $4000, and the Centenary will help in paying for this. These are only a part of the outstanding projects that are to be made possible among us on account of the assistance which is coming to us from the monies being distributed by our great Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

In my own work this year I have enjoyed to the fullest extent the opportunities that have come to me as I have gone the rounds of the district from quarter to quarter.

I have preached at 165 services and have held 95 business sessions of the quarterly conferences.

During the year the following brethren have very kindly assisted me at a number of the quarterly meetings: W. C. Winslow, N. K. Rowe, T. W. Grace, and L. B. Clarke.

The District Conference met at Chuckey in July, was well attended by both laymen and pastors, and was a very profitable conference for us all.

Our Camp Meetings at Sulphur Springs and at Ross Camp Ground were well attended this year and were thought to be very much worth while by those who were in attendance on the services. Rev. A. C. Goddard and Rev. G. S. Bales assisted in the preaching at Sulphur Springs, and Rev. C. E. Powell at Ross Camp Ground.

It would be impracticable for me to report in detail all the achievements of the pastors on the Johnson City District this year. They have been busy and faithful with their tasks and deserve great praise for the successes of the year.

We reported at the close of the first round of quarterly meetings that there would be an increase in pastoral support over last year of about $5000. There will be few, if any, deficiencies in the assessments promised to the pastors. From the latest reports which I have received it appears that the Benevolent Collections of all kinds will approximate about $20,000. I thank God for good health, a will to work, and for the opportunities that have come to me to assist in the advance of the Kingdom of God on the Earth.

KNOXVILLE DISTRICT

W. K. Harris, Superintendent

Knoxville District is now composed of thirteen stations, four half stations, and thirteen circuits. Each of these stations except one or two newly organized, are amply capable of self support and substantial contributions to the more needy fields of the church. The half stations have equal resources and with reasonable growth should soon be self-supporting or be united with other charges making stronger circuits. Our thirteen circuits present some of the most difficult problems in the district. Some of them are entirely too large yet it is difficult to re-organize the charges and find sufficient support for our pastors at this time. Salary advances on the district have not been as large as they should have been. Six years ago the district contributed about twenty-seven thousand dollars for ministerial support. Reports this year should show about thirty-seven thousand for the same item. About three thousand dollars have been paid for this purpose this conference year more than was paid last year.

There has been but one change of pastors during the year. E. R. Branham, who was quite ill at the last session of the conference was able to return to the work about January 1, and was placed in charge of Townsend and Wal-land. He has had a splendid year not unmixed with sorrow. His little daughter, four years old, after a brief illness went home to our Savior who said "Suffer little the children and forbid them not to come unto me for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Dr. M. C. Bruner and M. B. Gass have each suffered the loss of companion and helpmeet in the work of the Master. Brother W. L. McTeer, C. L. Kirby, and perhaps others have been hindered by illness in their homes. The mother of J. T. Bird, and that of B. M. Martin passed away during the year. To all of these and others bereft and afflicted we extend our deepest sympathy.

Fair progress has been reported on most of the charges of the district. Certain churches on the Jefferson City, Knoxville Circuit, Lenoir Circuit, and Sevierville Circuit are unfortunately located in overchurched communities. We naturally feel that other denominations should move out and give us the field. Since they will not do this we will probably continue the slow process of starvation until we find which has the vitality to survive and which must perish.

New work has been taken up at Alcoa by J. M. Emert, pastor of First Church, Maryville. A fine new chapel has been erected at Bungalow Town and was recently dedicated by our worthy resident Bishop Bristol, to whom much credit is due for the fine victory in raising necessary money to pay off the indebtedness. J. T. Bird also has added another appointment to his already long list on the Maryville Circuit. At the new sheet mills the Aluminum Company have set apart a beautiful lot on which they agree to assist us in building a beautiful church in the near future. This is one of the greatest opportunities in the district and should be occupied this year.

Oakwood has purchased a new location in the very best section of that growing suburb. Niota on the Loudon Charge is all ready to begin a new building as soon as material is available. Second Church is contemplating larger things. Maryville has purchased plans and specifications for a fine building but have been unable to get bids for construction on account of the scarcity of material. The church at Pleasant Hill on Maryville Circuit is complete except the pews, which have been delayed. Pigeon Forge is just now beginning to replace the building burned last year.

Splendid improvements have been made at several churches. First Church has spent over three thousand dollars on painting decorating. Inskip has added new pews. Lonsdale has overhauled the parsonage at a cost of twelve hundred dollars. Logan's Chapel, Little River charge, has added a fine new porch and other improvements at a cost of eleven hundred. Trinity has continued the good work of reducing the indebtedness. Six years ago their debt was forty-two thousand dollars. It is now all pledged and within two years at the rate they are now paying it will be a thing of history. East Main Avenue has paid the last fifteen hundred dollars and is now free from debt for the first time in its history. Whittle Springs has done some remarkable things in that they have paid fifteen hundred dollars on indebtedness this year. Park City has finished paying the last note and is now free from debt.

Good revivals have been held on many of the charges notably Chestnut Hill, Erie, Friendsville, Loudon, Oakwood, Lonsdale, Lenoir Circuit, Pigeon Forge, and Sevierville Circuit. A. B. McKenzie, conference evangelist, has done excellent work assisting the pastors in a number of very helpful meetings. J. F. Lynch has assisted in a number of meetings on neighboring charges that have been of great help to the churches.

Our Sunday Schools are not as prosperous as we would like. Perhaps on account of illness during the winter and an unusually rainy season during the summer the attendance in some cases is not larger than last year. First Church now has the largest school in the district with an enrollment of more than nine hundred.

Epworth Leagues are flourishing. We now have twenty-three in the district. A fine attendance was noted at the Institute held at Sevierville in August. The young folks report a fine time and look forward to its repetition annually hereafter.

Women's Societies were never better. Ladies' Aid Societies and the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies have the banner reports of their history. I confidently expect their offerings to reach a sum nearly twice as large as any previous year.

Our district school, Murphy College, is now attracting the attention of the church at large. Our Missionary Boards and the Board of Education have heard a voice and seen a vision. The voice was that of our worthy president, Dr. E. A. Bishop, who has impressed our people as no man has done before. Ground has recently been broken for the first of a group of seven new buildings on the new campus. When completed it will be one of the finest institutions of its kind in the country.

A fine work is being done in the mountainous sections of Blount and Sevier Counties by the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. This work is being directed by Dr. J. S. Burnett and consists of ministerial and pastoral service, community work, and schools. This work is highly commendable and should be cherished and encouraged. Mr. W. B. Townsend offers several thousand dollars to be used in construction with our Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. This is to be used in developing a project at Townsend and vicinity.

My own work has been pleasant. I love the people of the Knoxville district. I have tried to be faithful. I have not accomplished all that I hoped might be done at the beginning of the year but I trust some things worth while has been done and for the small measure of success I give to our Heavenly Father the praise.

Reports of Committees

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

We, your committee on Sabbath Observance, desire to submit the following report:

Inasmuch as experience and the holy scriptures teach that humanity needs a definite portion of time systematically set apart for rest from secular employment, and for intellectual and spiritual improvement, and whereas, our Creator has graciously provided for these needs by setting apart one day in seven for this purpose, therefore be it resolved: 1st, That we, the members of the Holston Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church hereby express ourselves against all customs and practices which tend to desecrate the Christian Sabbath, and thereby deprive humanity of the blessings which it brings when rightly observed; 2nd, That we pledge ourselves to support every measure which will lend to perpetuate it as a holy day that humanity may forever enjoy the blessings of this holy institution.

EDUCATION

The University of Chattanooga

The College of Liberal Arts of the University of Chattanooga starts the year 1920-1921 with the largest enrollment in its history, the total number of students now totaling more than two hundred. The cash receipts from tuition fees on October 18th was within one thousand dollars of the entire receipts of the previous year.

The faculty of the college is now the largest and strongest since the founding of the institution. Three new professorships having been added this year. David W. Cornelius, Ph.D. Illinois, comes to the department of Physics, Wyman R. Green, Ph.D. Chicago, assumes the head of the Department of Biology, and Dr. H. H. Young, S. T. B. Drew, Ph.D. Garrett, is head of the new department of Religious Education.

In is expected that the calling of Dr. Young to the college will do much toward strengthening the efforts of the institution to train a number of its students each year for the ministry, for the missionary fields, and for other work in the church.

The college has acquired this year a fine home for women. The need of a large dormitory for men is great as well as further facilities for the housing of the women. It is fully expected that these additions to the property of the institution will be forthcoming within the year.

The University of Chattanooga is now receiving the finest support from that city, but it is realized that to make this an outstanding college in Methodism it must have the continuous and hearty support of all our people throughout the neighboring conferences. The institution is in dire need of more money if it is to serve as it should and in securing the interest and the contributions of those of means, our pastors and our layman's association can be of the utmost service. Indeed, without their hearty support, the real work of the college as a Methodist institution must fail.

The Athens School

Too much stress cannot be placed on the matter of giving our young people adequate training for lives of service and usefulness. They must not be allowed to bury their talents but should be encouraged to develop and use them. Nowhere can this be done to better advantage than in our church schools.

The Athens School is entering upon what promises to be one of the best years of its history. Two hundred and twenty-five students from eleven states are represented, with a large number who are now teaching planning to enter at the beginning of the second term.

This institution through its preparatory department, its normal department of religious education and rural leadership, and departments of music, commerce, and home economics, is endeavoring to serve the mass of its constituency with a maximum of efficiency.

The faculty of the School is one of the best in its history. The instruction is thorough and painstaking. The expenses are low, with numerous opportunities for self-help, so that any young man or woman who has sufficient ambition and grit can get the benefits of the institution.

Thirty ministerial students are enrolled, a number of whom are serving charges in the conference. A decidedly religious atmosphere prevails in the School.

The operation by the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Elizabeth Ritter Home for girls in connection with the School is one of its valuable features.

The new department of religious education and rural leadership recently established by the Rural Department of the Board of Home Missions is already doing a fine work, and bids fair to render a great service in preparing men for the rural work of the church, in particular, and for more efficient work in general.

During the past summer several thousand dollars have been spent in repairs and improvements.

The School is doing a valuable and greatly needed work and should receive the hearty support and co-operation of pastor and layment alike.

Murphy College

Murphy College has had another year of prosperity. The attendance for the school year 1919-20 was 443. This year without advertising the attendance is 55 above the same date last year, the largest gain being in the higher departments. With ample accommodations the numbers in the upper classes can easily be doubled.

The new property purchased in 1919 has been carefully plotted, and plans are being prepared for the first unit of seven new buildings. Last month a contract was signed for the first building, a dormitory for young men. This building is to be of brick, two stories high, 157 feet long, 45 feet wide at one end, and 77 feet wide at the other, with modern plumbing, heating, and lighting. When finished in February, this building will have up-to-date rooms for 90 students. It is quite necessary that dormitory for 90 young women should be constructed at an early date, if possible by September 1, 1921.

The entire plant of 7 buildings should be ready for use within 3 years. When these buildings are completed our church will have at Sevierville an institution to which we may point with pardonable pride and from which we may expect.

State University

The time has come when we must take into consideration our relationship to the educational institutions supported by the State. An increasing number of our Methodist young people are entering these institutions. In some of these institutions no provision is made for the religious life of the student except a very superficial sort of provision on the part of the student Y.M.C.A. - The student body of an educational is an important pastoral and evangelistic field. Many young men and young women are volunteering for missionary service and the ministry out of these State institutions. We recognize the growing importance of the relationship between the University of Tennessee and our Knoxville churches. We, therefore, recommend that this Conference give the Board of Education of our Church the largest possible support in the carrying forward of any enterprise for the pastoral oversight of the students of the University of Tennessee by a Methodist University pastor. We heartily commend such a project and earnestly and devoutly hope for its consummation.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

Whereas, the wide distribution of the Bible is fundamental to the permanent and rapid spread of the Kingdom of God in the earth, and,

Whereas, The American Bible Society, through untiring effort is sending out the Bible in four hundred and thirty-five languages and dialects, and,

Whereas, the Bible is in demand today in excess of any other book published,

Be it resolved, that we urge greater loyalty on the part of our pastors and people, to the American Bible Society, and that we inform the people of their responsibility and great opportunity to support the Society.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

The young life of Methodism is her greatest asset and herein lies her supreme opportunity.

The Epworth League is a great organization. It is doing a splendid work by encouraging and training the young folk to function in public. The weekly programme is not only educational, in giving the young people a vision concerning the missionary enterprises of our great church, but they also afford an opportunity to inspire the boys and girls to make a definite decision to accept Christ.

The League Institute convenes annually and has become a yearly blessing to all those who attend it. It furnishes a few days of pleasant association interspersed with intensive study and daily recreation. During the Institute the young people are addressed by prominent ministers of Methodism, who urge the young folks to make a definite consecration of life to some phase of religious work and many of them respond to these appeals.

It is altogether possible to make the Institutes a mighty recruiting station for the Ministry.

We, your committee, therefore urge, a greater co-operation on the part of all the pastors of the Holston Conference in the work of the Epworth League.

HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONS

The Methodist Episcopal Church has dreamed dreams and has seen heavenly visions, and these dreams have been transformed into actual facts, and by obedience to these visions the church has opened into the dawn of a new day.

The great Centenary Programme was both timely and effective in arousing the powers of the members of the church from their state of lethargy to a high plane of activity, both with their money and with their prayers. Faith has caught the joyful sound and victory peals forth from many lands. But victory means increased sacrifice and responsibility. We are to be "more than conquerors through Him who loved us." We are to be builders for the Kingdom and in the Kingdom.

Money, money, and much money is needed in these days of high cost in everything. But with the money that is now being laid upon our altars, let us breathe the prayer of the Master, that more consecrated labors may be sent forth into fields that are now ready with the golden harvest to be reaped.

Let us show the young people, especially, that there is a great opportunity for them to become real heroes in their mighty battle, to send the gospel of Jesus Christ into the whole world, and that the Master teaches us that it is far better for us and the world to serve than to be served.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

We wish to thank Drs. Tremerry and Barkclay for the very helpful and inspiring addresses they brought to us this conference session. We believe the time has come for the Holston Conference to give greater diligence and time to the work of the Sunday Schools of our area. There is no work of the church of more importance than that which has to do with the religious training of its children. We recommend that this conference set as its goal for the coming year, 1st, an increase in the present enrollment in the Sunday Schools to equal at least 10%; 2nd, The placing of our own literature in every Sunday School of our Conference; 3rd, the establishing of Leadership Training Classes in every Sunday School where it is at all possible; 4th, emphasize the spirit of Evangelism in all our Sunday Schools and the observance of Decision Day.

We further urge our pastors to give greater attention to the observance of special days in the Sunday Schools, such as Easter, Children's Day, and Rally Day.

EQUALIZING ANNUAL CONFERENCE EXPENSES

Your committee on equalizing the expenses of the pastors to and from Conference wish to report as follows:

Your committee recommends the election of a Railroad Secretary, whose duties it will be at the session of each Annual Conference to ascertain the amount of the cost of the tickets to and from Conference of each minister in charge of a work and each District Superintendent.

He shall find the average cost to the pastors and collect from each pastor, whose expenses are less than this average cost, an amount sufficient to bring his expenses up to this average, and refund to each pastor whose expenses have been greater than this average cost an amount sufficient to bring down his expenses to the average cost.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL

Whereas, There is a widespread feeling in many quarters throughout our Southern Churches and Conferences, for the establishing of a Theological School within the bounds of Holston Conference and believing very profoundly as we do, that this school is needed among us,

Resolved that we do hereby request and petition the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Board of Trustees of the University of Chattanooga, to take such steps in the matter as may bring about this much desired end.

Resolved further, that a committee of three members of this Conference be appointed by the presiding Bishop to act as a Conference Committee to present these resolutions to the above named boards in a proper way, and to represent the Conference in any other matters in this connection which may be necessary.

We have examined the Missionary Accounts in the hands of the District Superintendents and find just one or two slight variations; but with certain explanations we desire to announce them correct.

RESOLUTION

Whereas, the Sunday Schools of the Holston Conference present a very fertile field for a strong program of intensive and educational work, and are at the present time sadly in need of just such a type of cultivation, the time being ripe and opportune for a general forward movement along Sunday School lines, and whereas, the Board of Sunday Schools of our Church has come forward with a proposition to place in the Holston Conference a high grade and thoroughly trained field man for Sunday School work, to lead us in a general advance,

Therefore, be it resolved that we heartily approve such a move, and unite in urging such appointment at the earliest possible date, and that we hereby earnestly pledge our co-operation with and support of whoever is appointed to such a position.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

Any program of appreciation or esteem that does not include the worn-out preachers and other dependents in this relationship is incomplete.

The conditions we are proud of in our Conference have been made possible only by the self-sacrificing of these heroic men of God. More and more we come to appreciate their lives of labor and love. Whether living or dead we think of them in terms of heroism and loyalty. Therefore we pledge to them our sympathy and prayers; 2nd, our hearty co-operation in any movement that will bring to them a brighter and easier day in their declining years. We submit the following resolution:

That every pastor in the Conference be asked to do his best to raise the full apportionment for this noble cause, and that our grand old Holston Conference put itself on record in meeting all claims of the Conference Claimants for we know the claims are their needs.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, in the providence of Almighty God the Holston Conference has been privileged to meet again in the hospitable city of Cleveland, one of the most beautiful and enterprising cities of our own beloved East Tennessee, and whereas the unsurpassed hospitality of this community shown the Conference in former days has again characterized this meeting,

3rd, That we mention with gratitude the efficient service of our Secretary, Treasurer, Statistician and their assistants;

4th, That we express our appreciation of the visits of our representatives from the various Boards of the Church and the Helpful addresses and suggestions made by them.

Respectfully submitted,

Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals

We rejoice in the past achievements and in the program of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals of our Church. It has been a leader of thought and a maker of successful plans. Independent in its thinking and planning it occupies a unique place in the work of reform and has given ample proof of its value as a militant Christian power in the war against alcohol and kindred evils throughout the nation. It has always been ready to take the initiative, but has been careful not to outrun public sentiment, and has ever been ready to co-operate with all worthy temperance agencies. We are glad to give our confidence to its wise and aggressive tactics.

It inaugurated the Bone Dry regimen and made the new term popular, and is now advocating the withdrawal of our flag and consular service from protection of those who do in other lands what has been outlawed in the United States.

We concur with the General Conference at Des Moines and "endorse the far-seeing plans of the Board in securing the most eligible site, just fronting the doors of the Capitol at Washington, for the erection of a large building commemorating the hundred years struggle which has resulted in national prohibition, and furnish a home for the Board of Temperance and all Methodist interests that center in Washington and be the headquarters of the Protestant and civic reform leaders who watch the currents of government and promote the reforms now throbbing for expression in the convictions of the people."

This work, started with the full endorsement of the General Conference, was hindered by the war and sidetracked by the Centenary Drive, but must now be completed by the generosity of those who believe that the importance of this reform work demands adequate equipment for its future conquest.

We urge every pastor to heartily participate in the plans of the Board to secure the balance of the funds necessary to finish its building enterprise.

We endorse the strict enforcement of National Prohibition, including the elimination of beer and wine of any alcoholic percent; the enthronement of the American Sabbath on its civic foundations; the Bible taught all our growing citizens in our public schools; Americanization insisted upon, including the English language in our schools and newspapers; the maintenance of our American ideals of purity in the home life of both sexes; the enforcement of the Red Light Abatement Laws; the passage of the bill now pending in Congress suppressing race track gambling, its ticket issues, and the transportation of its betting chances.

In view of the lowering of the moral standards and the loosening of certain national ideals following the war, we should look for a sunrise on Plymouth Rock by the revivifying of those ideals which our forefathers brought and planted in this new world and whose fruition is our Christian civilization, our National Government and our freedom.
